Seniors 2018

Dear Class of 2018,

Four years ago, we all stepped into the auditorium and quickly acquainted ourselves with our home for the years to come. We made and lost friends, did well and struggled in classes, but we all persevered together. The community that Quince Orchard has is unmatched with any other Montgomery County school, as we have a plethora of spirit and diversity. All of us have been through a lot, but we've found a way to push through, and now that we're here today, we can look back at all of our memories. Through the ups and downs and stress, the amazing moments will be what we remember the most, and we will always remember how much of a great time all of us had. The next 11 pages will round out not just the school year, but our high school experiences. Enjoy them, and take a moment to congratulate yourself on making it this far.

*Sincerely,
Matthew Gordon, Brandon Freedman,
Flynn Snyder, Jenna Kase, and Alexa Elliott*

I, Joshua Zarb, leave Hannah Handelman my Snapchat filters. Gudrun Thorkelsdottir, I leave you access to the school's Twitter account.

I, Matthew Zlotnicki, leave my seat in Goshime's class and Gasaway's hair gel to Kyle "Chapo" Balow, and all of my notes and homework in forensics to Danny Pomerance.
