Dear Class of 2021,

This has not been the year we all expected, and it is hard to finish off a senior year that feels like it has barely begun. We zoomed from our homes, unsure of how long the COVID-19 pandemic would surge across our nation. Yet just in the nick of time, the vaccines rolled out before our senior year came to an end. Some of us were able to go back to the QO campus, see our teachers again, and have sports seasons, a senior fest, and a graduation. Nothing about this year has been normal, but it is ours to remember. As our chapter is closing, hold onto the important memories from this uncertain year, as well as the memories of our entire high school experience to look back at fondly. This is the time to celebrate our achievements at QO, big and small, in-person and on Zoom — we worked hard and with Cougar pride. In a few short months, we will be moving on, but we will bring the great memories with us. It has been a great four years, Cougars, and we can't wait to see what the future holds for us.

Sincerely,
The Prowler Staff Seniors
